Subject: Revised draft of OOOOa policy package NPRM
Attachments: RLSOdshCleanCopyQuadOaNPRM.docx

Bill,

The attached RLSO reflects my further proposed revisions to the draft OOOOa policy package NPRM. As I mentioned earlier today, the underlying document here, changes to which the RLSO reflects, was the “clean copy” version of the RLSO that I’d given to you last Friday. So, the additions and strikeouts you see in the attached document comprise the text, and text changes, you have yet to see. Everything else you have seen.

This, of course, still needs work, but I think it’s further (and, hopefully, a lot further) along than it had been.

As I noted earlier this afternoon, I am on leave this coming Monday, returning to the office on Tuesday. Assuming my color printer doesn’t jam up irrevocably, or run out of ink or whatnot, I’ll be printing out a hard copy of this and leaving it on your chair before I depart for the evening . . . which I intend to do once it stops printing. If, therefore, you come into your office this coming Monday and no hard copy is on your chair, then something did go dreadfully wrong with my printer.
